PURPOSE
This program of instruction provides a Marine with the knowledge and skills required to execute Security Cooperation training mission with a Foreign Security Force (FSF). The target audience for the Security Cooperation Trainer Course is a corporal thru 1stLt serving in a SC capacity.

SCOPE
The two-week Security Cooperation Training Course provides fundamental advisor skills, training management, and Foreign Weapons training to prepare Marines for overseas Security Cooperation missions. Through formal instruction and immersive environment scenario training, students learn to analyze and apply operational culture to their mission, build and maintain relationships and rapport with FSF counterparts, recognize and mitigate cultural stress, develop and implement training plans, while deployed in partner nations. Students graduate prepared to teach and coach a Foreign Security Force in order to develop its organizational capability and capacity in accordance with US Government, Service, and FSF objectives.

Course Overview

Advisor Fundamentals Annex

This annex provides a student with knowledge and skills necessary to effectively communicate with a FSF within a Security Cooperation mission. The Marine receives instruction on Introduction to Security Cooperation, Recognizing Culture Shock, Non-Verbal Communication, Establishing Cross-Culture Relationships, and Employing Interpreters. Each class contains practical application exercises. This annex culminates with a written examination.

Training Management Annex

The crux of the course, this annex provides a student with the skills needed to develop, deliver, and evaluate training for a Foreign Security Force. The Marine receives instruction on Develop Training, Deliver Training, Evaluate Training, Foreign Disclosure, and Range Operations. This instruction builds on foundational Unit Training Management skills to teach Marines how to effectively adapt our training management methods to shape FSF training in a manner that achieves US objectives for capability or capacity development of the FSF. It also emphasizes appropriate instructional delivery methods for foreign forces. This annex culminates with a written examination.

Training Management Performance Evaluation

This module culminates week one of the course. Students will work in small teams and be responsible for training a FSF element simulated by native role players. Students will produce a training package to implement during the day-long exercise. They will also have to use skills from the Advisor Fundamentals annex to effectively interact with and influence their FSF counterparts.

Foreign Weapons

This annex provides students with the familiarization of foreign weapons they may encounter on an SC deployment. The Marine receives instruction on AGS-17, AK Series Weapons, DShK, FN FAL, G3, G36, Galil, M-60 Machinegun, Negev, PKM, RPD, RPG, RPK, SPG-9, SVD, Tavor TAR 21, and the TT33. Each class contains practical application exercises. This annex culminates with a written examination and live fire range.
